Terms & Conditions

Upon holding a date The Company's facilities will be allocated on a provisional basis, for a period agreed with the Company, but not exceeding two weeks. However, until the booking has been confirmed in writing, and accepted by the Company, the Company reserves the right to cancel the provisional booking, should an alternative confirmed booking be received for the same date. This would not be done, however, without first offering the Client the opportunity to confirm the booking in writing, within 48hours of being contacted by the Company.

No reservation may be secured until the contract has been signed and returned. This incorporates all booking conditions and along with the signed contract, a deposit of £1,000 is required to confirm the booking. This deposit is NON-REFUNDABLE should the wedding be cancelled. See the cancellation policy for further details.

A bespoke payment plan is then put in place leading up to your wedding. Final balance is due no later than 4 weeks before your special day.
